

ERMA GARNETT

Aim--To be the champion lady boxer.

Hobby--Writing notes to Lois.

Pet saying--"Greatness is not born in marble halls."

Here's hoping that Erma achieves it.

OLIVER L'AMI

A doctor of chiropractic,
To cure you whene'er you are sick;

For your pains and your ills

Neither powders nor pills,

But a punch which will make you well quick.

KENT PHILLIPS

Our budding orator. Hopes to become a second Lloyd-George. His desire is to secure a certain seat in French. We wonder why, Kent?

EUGENIE BLANC

Ah! Mon Dieu, to my work tout de suite,

Tous les jours, chaque semaine, sept ou huit,

If I always get tea

I shall be an M.D.

And you'll find that my bills can't be beat.

CORA WILEY

When you're suffering from malnutrition

Get Cora for your dietitian.

If her pies and her cakes

Fill your body with aches,

Then secure mighty quick a physician.

WILLIAM BURIANYK

Ambition--To become a philosopher.

Favorite occupation -- Teaching Greek.

Motto--"Never too late for breakfast."

PERCY SPRAGUE

Our philosopher. The man with the razor mind. He spends his time reading the dictionary to find words to express his thoughts.

SARAH J. STEWART

In IV. B there is no one much sweeter,

For an all-round sport you can't beat her;

She is jolly and gay,

We'll say she's O.K.

You can count yourself lucky to meet her.
