

BONNIE BRECKNELL
Just like Kleenex in a box,
She pops up in the craziest spots.
She's quiet you see, but we can tell,
Whatever she'll do, she'll do it well.

NEIL BERNBAUM
Math is Neil's pride and joy,
Especially figures, boy oh boy!
Out all night on the romp,
To catch up on sleep he snoozes in Comp.

MURRAY NEWTON
Now we have here a real friendly guy,
And if he's trapped up, it's plain to see why.
So here's wishing the best for you,
In all your schooling and future too.

NORM KRIVOSHEN
You will hear much of Norm,
He's happy with a personality warm.
He seems to be quiet but you will see,
A roaring success he's sure to be.

DOUG KELMAN
Doug's career will be an exciting one,
A bit of work and lots of fun.
To join the air force is his desire,
He plans to set the world on fire.

LYNN CHISHOLM
Lynn asks questions, if need be,
The teachers answer patiently.
They explain it all and then Lynn says, "What was that again?"

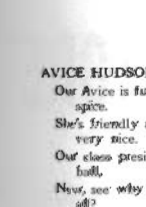

MARGARET GALBRAITH
From Toronto comes this lass
A brand new addition to our class.
Good sportsmanship, a real brain too,
Margaret, Nutana welcomes you!

ELEANOR COWLEY
When her eyes get that squinkle,
She's not thinking of Rip Van Winkle.
A ready smile and loads of fun
She has won the hearts of everyone.

IAN McDOUGALL
Drizzle, drizzle down the floor,
He shoots—oh well, try once more.
In acting he is really hot,
In fact, this guy does quite a lot.

AVICE HUDSON
Our Avice is full of sugar and spice.
She's friendly and quiet, and very nice.
Our class president is on the ball,
Now, see why she's liked by all?

DODY ROBINSON
Dody plays the clarinet,
On Varsity her hopes are set.
Home Ec. is what she will take,
A big success we're sure she'll make.

DOROTHY LEDINGHAM
There's one thing about Dot,
We must confess.
Of all the good sports
She's one of the best.

RUTH MONTGOMERY
Here comes Florence Nightingale,
Hopping down the nursing trail.
Cute as a bunny, mischievous too,
There's not much this girl can't do.

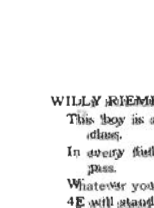

JOAN ROGERS
If there's someone you'd like to meet,
Jean can show you the right technique.
She's very calm, never rushing,
Most of the time you'll find her blushing.

CHRIS PETERSON
I don't know what to say about Chris.
The rhythms are getting tough
However, I can assure you this,
He's certainly nice enough.

BARBARA HUNT
First eats candy, then chews gum,
Soon she'll offer the teacher some.
She's undecided about her future's career,
But towards success we know she'll steer.

WILLY REIMER
This boy is an asset to our class.
In every field he seems to pass.
Whatever you decide to do,
4E will stand behind you.
