

Susan Weigel played Jr. Volleyball, was on the honour roll and Grad Dance Committee and worked at the Star-Phoenix. She skates, swims, bowls and hopes for a Senior Secretarial Diploma. P.D. She can't wait to weigel down the aisle.

Jarrell Wenger was on the honour roll, received Academic Crests and was in basketball and track. He was a soccer player and captain and was on the Provincial All-Star Team. He plans to go to university. P.D. One-half of the Richards and Wenger comedy team.

Darlene Willms P.D. Being a motorcycle mamma.

Florence Wobma works at the Bay Cafeteria and enjoys sewing and the outdoors. P.D. Being a dictaphone.

Clare Wong enjoyed art and home economics classes. Her hobbies are swimming and drawing, and she plans to attend university.

Wanda Yurach was on the honour roll and enjoys badminton, piano, tennis and reading. Wanda plans to continue her education. P.D. Getting a Ph.D. in everything.

Brenda Yachiw was a Sr. and Jr. head cheerleader, the Hermes' art editor, Nutana's Avon Lady and belonged to the Pep Club. She plans to be a trick-painter of vans. P.D. The world's greatest ding-dong.

Yancy Zelko

Janice Vanolst, Leddy's SRC rep in Gr. 11, was on the honour roll, won an Academic Crest and played Jr. Basketball, Sr. Volleyball and track. She plans to travel and attend university. P.D. Selling wooden shoes at the Bay.

David Vesty played Sr. Boy's and intramural curling and enjoys skiing, bowling and drinking and driving. P.D. Principal at Riverview.

Lloyd Vinish was on the honour roll, received a 9A Pin and played basketball. He plans to take Pharmacy at the U. of S. P.D. Shooting baskets at B.V. Park.

Judy Wahn was on the honour roll, received Academic Crests and participated in curling, Drama, cross-country skiing and Reach for the Top. She enjoys piano, swimming and water-skiing. Judy plans to go to university. P.D. Being kidnapped by little green men in a flying saucer.

Colin Ward plays fastball and piano and likes listening to music. He plans to take Commerce at the U. of S. P.D. Voting for the ward system.

Ellen Watson P.D. Professional cowboy.

